Dika Mustafic.After 25 years of zealous service in the Navy, Jason White's life as a serviceman became a nightmare after enduring a series of strange incidents that caused him to question what he was really doing. In November 2006, while being deployed in Bahrain, White's ship locked on to a commercial airliner and scanned the passenger list. When he was about to search for his own name, the vessel's computer crashed, forcing the crew to reset it. When the ship was 570a42141b
