Ninoy.Aquino.Int.and.Metro.Manila In the Avila Valley and along the shoreline of the Gulf of Mexico, the South Florida real estate market has experienced record-breaking home sales. "I've talked to people in Palm Beach, on some of the islands," said Carter Spagnoli, vice president of the South Florida Regional Office of Sotheby's International Realty, who does a lot of regional tours. "And they were amazed at the activity. But there is still a lot of land that is not under offer." Last week, Sotheby's International Realty produced its first market snapshot. The market is split evenly between sold and unsold properties. There were more than 4,000 properties offered for sale in the report. The large majority of those were located in Palm Beach. However, other markets, such as the Treasure Coast, Brevard and Manatee, also saw strong competition. Palm Beach had
