The Elden Ring War began two years ago, and now the muck of armed conflict has reached the Fields Between. You must defend your country, as well as the woman that brought you the power of the Elden Ring. Join, rise, and become the leader of the single-player campaign, as well as a hero to the people in the new online battle. [Elden Ring 2] Play Up to Three at Once, Online Multiplayer Through the great change that has occurred in the Lands Between, the Great Elden City where the Elden Ring once held power has long been an island, separated by the war. It may be that it is time to break the cycle of decline and reunite with all that is lost, but to go back is a long journey. Grand Lobby War of the Lion Knights has awoken, and the last remaining Elden nobles and its people will now face off against the Lion Knights in the Fields Between. Create your own Warrior and battle in the trial of the warlord, the last of the Elden realm's defenders. Your heroes have been scattered. Your allies have fled. But still you stand as the last of the Elden Ring. The Lands Between — Version 0.2 * First Release -Added All-New Map The Fields Between is a wide region in the Lands Between. There are many plains, forests, and mountains, among a few other features. - Added New Battle Mode: Battle of the Tanks The battle between the Lion Knights and Elden Ring has begun. This battle mode takes place within a battle arena where three types of units clash. You must defeat the enemy unit you are currently facing. - Added New Classes: Elden Ring Warriors, Andor Mute, Andor Illusionist, Andor Assassin, Andor Conjurer, Andor Sniper, Andor Archer - Improved Battle AI Four new classes have been added to the battle. Also, they have been added as one of the "standard" classes that the battle AI uses. Please give them a try. - Improved Map Editor The map editor has been improved. The menu has been reworked, and you will be able to edit various properties such as the number of units, enemy types, and the number of stages. - The Unique Map Editor Mode
